BRAND PROTECTION & INDUSTRIAL DESIGN

INDUSTRIAL DESIGNS

Industrial design registration in Nigeria can protect any combination of shape, configuration, ornamentation, or pattern that, in a finished product, appeals to and is judged solely visually and not functionally by a viewer of same. At a high level, the difference between industrial designs and patents is one of “form versus function.” Industrial designs are not concerned with functionality, but rather with the visual aspects of a product.

In Nigeria, an applicant may secure industrial design rights by applying to register their industrial design with the Patents and Designs Registry of the Nigerian Industrial Property Office.

At Kabbiz Legal & Advisory, we are well equipped to assist our clients register their Designs.

BRAND PROTECTION

We are dedicated to helping businesses protect their brands and intellectual property rights and assets as they grow their businesses and acquire protectable IP assets. We are well-versed in laws and regulations related to brand protection, and we are committed to providing comprehensive legal solutions to safeguard your brand’s reputation and assets.

We are chosen for our innovative mindset and the niche areas of law we have carved our specialization in, all of which gives us the practice strength to be able to work to grow and protect your brand against external threats.
